General Information on Adoptions

Seek legal advice about your family's options before beginning any adoption. Every family is different and adoption may not be necessary for some families. Visit the Self-Help Guide to the California Courts adoption page to get copies of adoption forms, look for organizations that provide legal help with adoptions, and learn how to complete the adoption process on your own if you do not have a lawyer: www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-adoption.htm. You can also get copies of adoption forms at your local court clerk's office.

In California there are several kinds of adoption. This information sheet provides steps for the following types:

• Stepparent/domestic partner adoptions

- Independent or agency adoptions in the United States
- Stepparent/domestic partner confirmation of parentage
- Intercountry adoptions

Page 4 also has information about open adoptions and special requirements for the adoption of Indian (Native American) children.

Stepparent/Domestic Partner Adoptions

If you wish to adopt the child of your spouse or domestic partner, you may be eligible for a stepparent adoption. There are two types of stepparent adoptions. Answer these questions to figure out which process is right for you:

- → Were you in a union with the child's legal parent at the time the child was born and are you still in a union with the legal parent? (A "union" means a marriage, a California registered domestic partnership, or a registered domestic partnership or civil union from another state that is legally equivalent to a marriage.)
- → Did your spouse or domestic partner give birth to the child or was the child born through a gestational surrogacy process brought about by one or both of you?

If you answered no to either question, complete the items below for a stepparent/domestic partner adoption. If you answered yes to both questions, complete the items below for a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage.

1) Fill out court forms
☐ ADOPT-200 Adoption Request		This tells the judge about you and the child you are adopting.
☐ ADOPT-210	Adoption Agreement	This tells the judge that you and the child, if over 12, agree to the adoption. Fill it out, but do not sign it until the judge asks you to sign it.
☐ ADOPT-215	Adoption Order	The judge signs this form if your adoption is approved.
☐ ICWA-010(A)	Indian Child Inquiry Attachment	This lets the judge know that you have asked whether the child may be an Indian child.
☐ ICWA-020	Parental Notification of Indian Status	One form is required for each birth parent. This shows that the child's parents have been asked about potential Indian status.
	Additional Forms for	Stepparent Adoption to Confirm Parentage
☐ ADOPT-205 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption -OR-	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage. See above for more information on this type of adoption. Both the birth parent and the adopting parent must complete a separate declaration.
☐ ADOPT-206 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption: Gestational Surrogacy	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage because the child was conceived through a gestational surrogate and was born outside of California, and the state where the child was born only allowed one intended parent to be named as a legal parent on the child's birth certificate.

(2 )	Take your forms	to court
	Take the completed forms to the court clerk in the county where you live. The court will charge a filing fee. Or take the forms to your lawyer or adoption agency, if you are using one. If there is no hearing, form ADOPT-210 must be signed in front of the court clerk or a notary.

3	The social worker writes a report In most adoptions, a social worker writes a report. This report gives important information to the judge about the adopting parents and the child. The social worker will ask you questions. You may have to fill out forms. You may be required to pay a fee for this report. The social worker will file the report with the court and send you a copy. When you get the report, ask the clerk for a date for your adoption hearing.

Intercountry Adoptions

If this is an intercountry (international) adoption, complete items 1 through 6 below.

Note: You must follow this process to adopt your child under California law, even if the adoption was previously finalized in a foreign country. If the child's adoption was finalized in a foreign country, you must file the Adoption Request within the earlier of 60 days of the child's entry to the United States, or the child's 16th birthday.

Inquiry and Notice Under the Indian Child Welfare Act

The child and other people in the child's life must be asked specific questions in order to determine whether the child may be an Indian child. The Indian Child Inquiry Attachment (form ICWA-010(A)) should be attached to the Adoption Request . In agency adoptions, it is the responsibility of the agency to ensure that this inquiry is conducted and that the form is made part of the adoption file. In independent adoptions, the adoption service provider, CDSS Regional Office, or delegated county adoption agency is responsible. For more information about the duty of inquiry, see form ICWA-005-INFO.
A completed version of Parental Notification of Indian Status (form ICWA-020) for each birth parent should be attached to the Adoption Request , OR it should be shown that a good faith attempt was made to provide the form to each birth parent, the Indian custodian, or guardian of the child and inform them that they are required to complete and submit the form to the court. In agency adoptions, it is the responsibility of the agency to ensure that this form is provided to the birth parents and made part of the adoption file. In independent adoptions, the adoption service provider, CDSS Regional Office, or delegated county adoption agency is responsible.
If there is reason to believe that the child is or may be an Indian child, additional inquiry is required. For more information about the duty of inquiry, see form ICWA-005-INFO .
If, at any time during the proceeding, there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child, notice must be provided of the adoption request to the child's tribe or tribes, parents, Indian custodian, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, using Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child (form ICWA-030). This form must be served by registered or certified mail, with return receipt requested.
☐ If it is determined that the child is an Indian child or this is a tribal customary adoption, see Adoption of an Indian Child, below.
Adoption of an Indian Child
If you are adopting an Indian child, fill out and bring to court the following additional forms:
Adoption of Indian Child (form ADOPT-220); and Parent of Indian Child Agrees to End Parental Rights (form ADOPT-225).
If this is a tribal customary adoption, a copy of the tribal customary adoption order must be attached to the petition (form ADOPT-200) and the order (form ADOPT-215).

"Open" Adoption

If you want your child to have contact with their birth family, use Contact After Adoption Agreement (form ADOPT-310) to describe the kind of contact the birth family will have with your child. Fill out this form and bring it to your hearing.

(Check one) I have not yet been able to complete the inquiry about the child's Indian status because: I understand that I have an affirmative and continuing duty to complete this inquiry. I will do it as soon as possible and advise the court of my efforts. I have asked or I am advised by and on information and belief confirm that this person has completed inquiry by asking the child, the child's parents, and other required and available persons about the child's Indian status. The person(s) questioned are: Name: Name: Address: Address: City, state, zip: City, state, zip: Telephone: Telephone: Date questioned: Date questioned: Relationship to child: Relationship to child: Additional persons questioned and their information is attached. 3. This inquiry (check one): gave me reason to believe the child is or may be an Indian child. (If yes, continue to 4.) gave me no reason to believe the child is or may be an Indian child. I contacted the tribe(s) that the child may be affiliated with and worked with them to establish whether the child is a member or eligible for membership in the tribe(s). Information detailing the tribes contacted, the names of the individuals contacted, and the manner of the contacts is attached. 5. Based on inquiry and tribal contacts (check all that apply): The child is or may be a member of or eligible for membership in a tribe. Name of tribe(s): Location of tribe(s): The child's parents, grandparents, or great-grandparents are or were members of a tribe. Name of tribe(s): Location of tribe(s): The residence or domicile of the child, child's parents, or Indian custodian is on a reservation, rancheria, Alaska Native village or other tribal trust land. The child or the child's family has received services or benefits from a tribe or services that are available to Indians from tribes or the federal government, such as the Indian Health Service or Tribal Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF). The child is or has been a ward of a tribal court. Name of tribe(s): Location of tribe(s): Either parent or the child possesses an Indian Identification card indicating membership or citizenship in an Indian tribe. Name of tribe(s): Location of tribe(s): 6. If this is a delinquency proceeding under Welfare and Institutions Code section 601 or 602: The child is in foster care. It is probable the child will be entering foster care. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date:
