VENTURA, CA—Ventura Superior Court is pleased to announce the launch of its redesigned website, which adopts the Judicial Council of California’s standardized web template currently used by a majority of the courts across the state. This innovative platform enhances user experience and accessibility; provides direct pathways to essential information; and offers more intuitive navigation.

Presiding Judge Matthew P. Guasco states: “The launch of this new and improved website is an important step in fulfilling an important goal of the Court’s 2024-2028 Strategic Plan: improving the court user experience.”

Court Executive Officer Kate Bieker adds: “the Court is excited to launch a new website that will allow people to navigate the court system with clarity, confidence, and ease.”
